Kumari Ghar - Home to the World's only living Goddess. A short visit to Bhairab - the God of destruction, Taleju Temple - built in 1549 AD and Hanuman Dhoka Palace. Thereafter visit Swoyambunath Stupa, said to be one of the oldest Buddhist Stupas in the World, which is majestically set high on a Hill overlooking Kathmandu Valley. Afternoon: Half-day sightseeing tour of Patan, the "City of Fine Arts". Visit Durbar Square, Krishna Temple, built in 1637 AD, which holds a commanding position in the palace complex of Patan, it is the only temple in Nepal that has 21 spires and is entirely made of stone, Hiranyavarna Mahavira - the Golden Temple of Lord Buddha and the Tibetan Handcrafts Center. Overnight at the hotel

Day 3: Kathmandu sightseeing

After breakfast, set for a full day tour of Dakshinkali, Pharping and Kirtipur. Our day begins with a drive to Dakshinkali Temple – 23kms from KTM which is a famous shaktipeeth of Hindu people - a shaktipeeth is where worshippers sacrifice animals such as birds or goats to the Hindu goddess Kali. If your tour coincides either Saturday or Tuesday, the worshipping days, you will encounter hundreds of locals gathered there for blessings and animal sacrifice. On the way up the mountain to this temple, you will pass by many colorful small outdoor shops selling trinkets and offerings like flowers and coconuts to be offered to the temple. After the visit of colourful temple premises and after a short hike, we visit Pharping, home to many beautiful Buddhist monasteries and the cave of Guru Padmasambhava. Legend has it that the Guru was enlightened in the cave and near the entrance you can still see his handprint in the stone. As we guide you along the village, you can get a glimpse of the starkly different architecture of Buddhist shrines that you can't find in downtown Kathmandu. After enjoying the panoramic views of Pharping, we will drive to the neighboring town of Kirtipur. This historical town houses the oldest university of the nation and has a charming beauty. There is a wonderful sense of faded grandeur thanks to the impressive medieval temples along its backstreets. The old Newari city is home to the historical Chilancho Stupa, the century old Baghbbhairab temple, and Uma Maheshwor temple. Overnight at the hotel

Day 4: Kathmandu – Pokhara

After breakfast, we depart Kathmandu in a private vehicle for a scenic drive along the Trisuli River to Pokhara (200km). Pokhara is a picturesque city focused around the beautiful Phewa Tal Lake with the classic Machapuchare (Fish Tail Mountain) in the background. Rest of the afternoon if time permits, explore Lakeside area Overnight at the hotel

Transfer to Naudanda – 1hr drive and commence a gentle hike to Sarangkot (approx. 3-4hrs). Naudanda- Sarangkot hiking trip is one of the popular hiking around Pokhara. When you are in Pokhara and want to get some walking experience, this trip is perfect choice. The hike is of about four hours and goes on almost flat dirt road. The hike passes through peaceful and beautiful villages that boast incredible view of Pokhara valley stretch. The ridgeline just above the road has breathtaking views of Annapurna range. Overnight at the hotel in Sarangkot

Day 6: Sarangkot - Pokhara

Early morning reward yourself with the spectacular sunrise over the Annapurna Himalayan ranges from your hotel (or if you prefer to go to the nearby view tower) After leisure breakfast in front of Majestic Himalayan view, walk down to your vehicle parking area, and drive back to Pokhara (45minutes) enroute visit Bindyabasini Temple and check-in at hotel. Afternoon: Explore the beautiful town of Pokhara, visiting the Devi's Fall and the nearby Gupteshwor Cave popular for the natural artwork forms made of limestone deposits and enjoy an hour boat ride in Phewa Lake, offering splendid views of the surrounding Himalayan ranges. Afterwards, stroll around lakeside area. Overnight at the hotel

Day 7: Pokhara – Lumbini

Drive to Lumbini – approx. 215kms (approx. 7-8hrs). Lumbini is a Buddhist pilgrimage site towards west from KTM/Pokhara. It is the place where, according to Buddhist belief, Queen Mayadevi gave birth to Siddhartha Gautama in 563 BCE. Gautama, who achieved enlightenment sometime around 528 BCE, became the Buddha and founded Buddhism. Lumbini is one of many magnets for pilgrimage that sprang up in places pivotal to the life of the Buddha. Lumbini has a number of older temples, including the Mayadevi Temple, and various new temples, funded by Buddhist organizations from various countries, have been completed or are still under construction. Many monuments, monasteries and a museum, and the Lumbini International Research Institute are also within the holy site. Also, there is the Puskarini, or Holy Pond, where the Buddha's mother took the ritual dip prior to his birth and where he had his first bath. Overnight at Hotel Kasai or similar
