Package Duration: 7 days days

Day 1: Arrival Kathmandu

Arrive at Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu, where you will be warmly welcomed and transferred to your hotel. The rest of the day is free to relax or explore the surroundings at leisure. Overnight in Kathmandu.

Day 2: Kathmandu Sightseeing

Today's guided tour begins with Kathmandu Durbar Square, the ancient royal palace and home to the Living Goddess Kumari. Continue to the 2,500-year-old Swayambhunath Stupa (Monkey Temple), perched atop a hill with panoramic views of the valley. After lunch, visit the majestic Boudhanath Stupa, the largest in Asia and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Overnight in Kathmandu.

Day 3: Kathmandu – Pokhara (200 km / 5–6 hrs drive)

After breakfast, embark on a scenic drive to Pokhara, Nepal's second largest city, famed for its natural beauty. Along the journey, enjoy spectacular Himalayan vistas and charming countryside views. Upon arrival, relax at your hotel before strolling around the vibrant Lakeside area, with the option of a boat ride on the serene Fewa Lake. Overnight in Pokhara.

Day 4: Pokhara – Sarangkot – Pokhara

Rise early for a short drive to Sarangkot (1,700 m) to witness a breathtaking sunrise over the snowcapped Annapurna range. (Optional: a one-hour mini hike to a higher viewpoint for an enhanced experience.) Return to the hotel for breakfast, followed by a half-day sightseeing tour of Pokhara Valley. Highlights include Devi's Fall, Gupteshwor Mahadev Cave, Lakeside village, and a Tibetan refugee settlement, where traditional carpet weaving can be observed. Overnight in Pokhara.

Day 5: Pokhara – Kathmandu

After breakfast, return to Kathmandu by coach or (optional) domestic flight. Upon arrival, check into your hotel and rest briefly before visiting Patan Durbar Square, a jewel of Newar architecture, renowned for its exquisite temples and palace courtyards dating back to the Malla dynasty

(14th–18th centuries). Overnight in Kathmandu.

Day 6: Kathmandu – Nagarko

Following breakfast, drive to the scenic hill station of Nagarkot (2,100 m), renowned for its sweeping Himalayan views. En route, visit the beautifully preserved Bhaktapur Durbar Square, a UNESCO World Heritage Site showcasing medieval art and architecture. On a clear day in Nagarkot, even Mount Everest can be seen. In the evening, enjoy a breathtaking sunset over the Himalayan peaks. Overnight in Nagarkot.

Day 7: Departure

Wake up early to witness the magnificent sunrise over the Himalayas, visible directly from your room's balcony. After a leisurely breakfast, drive back to Kathmandu (approx. 1 hr) for your onward international departure.
